

Wee Read

Helping children and their families in Wellington, Dufferin and Guelph develop early literacy skills

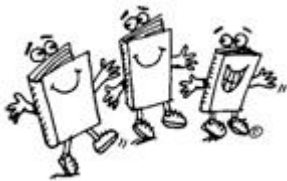

Emergent Literacy:

Everything children need to know about reading before they learn to read

Do you:

- Read to your children or the children under your care every day?
- Let your children see you reading?
- Have children's books at home?
- Have paper and crayons or markers for your children?
- Sing songs with your children?
- Take your children to the library to take out books or to go to their programs?

All of these activities help your child get ready to read

Call to learn more about:

- The importance of emergent literacy
- Who can help you and your children
- What programs are in your area

We offer fun, hands on sessions for:

- Parents and caregivers
- Home childcare providers
- Childcare staff
- Anyone who works with children from birth to age six

What you will learn:

- What early literacy is
- Why emergent literacy leads to success in school and life
- Easy activities to do with children
- How to make literacy a part of everyday life

For more information about programs or events, or to book a presentation on emergent literacy, please contact your local Early Literacy Specialist

In Dufferin County, please call:

1-519-941-6991 x2204

In Wellington and Guelph, please call:

1-519-767-5162 x203

Wee Talk

Ontario Early Years

Clip art images Copyright © 1998 Mark A. Hicks

Logo created by Mark A. Hicks